

Health-Safety-Welfare Safeguarding Children Policy and Procedures

St Clair Surf Lifesaving Club (SCSLSC) is committed to safeguarding the welfare of all children and young people in its care. SCSLSC recognises the responsibility to promote safe practice and to protect children and young people from harm and exploitation while participating in club surf lifesaving operations and activities.

1.0 SCOPE

This policy applies to all staff and volunteers engaged directly by SCSLSC, who work with children and young people. It is important that all staff, contractors and volunteers working with children and young people read and understand this policy.

2.0 PURPOSE

This policy recognises SCSLSC's responsibility to promote safe practices and well-being as well as to protect children and young people from harm, abuse and exploitation while participating in or associated with SCSLSC operations and activities. The purpose of this policy is to:

- 2.1 Protect all children and young people, whatever their culture, disability, gender, language, racial origin, socioeconomic status, religious belief and/or sexual identity, from all forms of harm.
- 2.2 Respect and promote the rights and feelings of children and young people.
- 2.3 Raise awareness of the importance of our role in maintaining the safety, welfare, and interests of any child and young person that staff or volunteers come into contact with, through their work.
- 2.4 Promote and implement appropriate procedures to safeguard the well-being of children and young people and protect them from abuse.
- 2.5 Provide guidelines, training, support and supervision to staff and volunteers to adopt best practice to safeguard and protect children and young people from abuse and to reduce risk to themselves.
- 2.6 Identify procedures for staff and volunteers to follow, should a suspected case arise or an accusation be made about inappropriate behaviour by any person, by providing training, support, and guidance to staff and volunteers.
- 2.7 Work in partnership with children and young people and parents/caregivers along with other organisations and agencies to promote the welfare, health and development of children and young people.
- 2.8 Regularly monitor and evaluate the implementation of this policy and procedures.

3.0 INTRODUCTION

All staff and volunteers who come into contact with children and young people and families in their work, including those who do not have a specific role in relation to safeguarding children and young people, have a duty to safeguard and promote the welfare of children and young people. All staff and volunteers must comply with this policy and the attached Appendices A, B, C and D.

4.0 DEFINITIONS

The following definitions apply to this policy:

Child – any child or young person aged under 17 years, and who is not married or in a civil union (also see Young People below).

Child Abuse - the harming (whether physically, emotionally, or sexually), ill treatment, abuse, neglect, or deprivation of any child or young person.

Forms of Child Abuse

Emotional abuse occurs when a child or young person's emotional, psychological, or social well-being and sense of worth is continually battered.

Neglect is the persistent failure to meet a child or young person's basic physical or psychological needs, leading to adverse or impaired physical or emotional functioning or development.

Physical abuse can be caused from punching, beating, kicking, shaking, biting, burning, or throwing the child or young person. It can also result from excessive or inappropriate discipline or violence within the family.

Sexual abuse includes acts or behaviours where an adult, older, or more powerful person uses a child or young person for a sexual purpose.

Child protection – activities carried out to ensure that children and young people are safe in cases where there is suspected abuse or neglect or the risk of abuse or neglect.

Club Child Protection Officer (CCPO) - a person/s appointed by the Chairperson of SCSLSC, responsible for maintaining an oversight of concerns and disclosures of alleged child or young person abuse.

National Child Protection Officer (NCPO) - a person/s appointed by the Chief Executive of SLSNZ, responsible for maintaining an oversight of concerns and disclosures of alleged child or young person abuse at a Regional or National level.

Oranga Tamariki - also known as the Ministry for Children is the government department responsible for the well-being of children and young people, specifically children and young people at risk of harm, youth offenders and children and young people of the State.

Safeguarding - the action that is taken to promote the welfare of young people and protect them from harm as well as help manage the risk of unsuitable persons entering the children and young people's workforce.

Safety check - means verifying identity and gathering information through application forms, face to face conversations, police vetting, and reference checks.

Whistleblowing – is the term used when a person passes on information concerning wrongdoing via an open, transparent and safe working environment where people feel able to speak up.

Vetting - means the formal process of obtaining checks from another agency, e.g. the Police vetting service, criminal record checks.

Volunteer - a person who freely gives their time, knowledge and skills to assist SCSLSC with the delivery of SCSLSC's operations and/or services. A person belonging to SCSLSC that participates in club operations and/or services.

Health-Safety-Welfare Safeguarding Children Policy and Procedures

Young people - refer to any persons under the age of 18 engaged in a SCSLSC activity, whether a member of SCSLSC or not.

6.0 POLICY

Recruitment and Training

- 6.1 All new SCSLSC employees and volunteers, whether permanent or seasonal, who are likely to interact with children and young people are required to undergo Safety Checks prior to confirmation of their appointment and every two years thereafter.
- 6.2 All existing SCSLSC employees and volunteers who are likely to interact with children and young people are required to undergo safety checks by (Insert Date), and every two years thereafter. Staff and volunteers who are likely to interact with children and young people include, but are not limited to; coaches, Club Child Protection Officer, patrol captains, and instructors.
- 6.3 All staff and identified volunteers will receive child or young person protection training appropriate for their role and operational level.

Roles and Responsibilities of Staff and Volunteers

- 6.4 The Chairperson of SCSLSC shall appoint a Club Child Protection Officer, whose role and responsibilities shall include:
 - a. ensuring that children or young person protection procedures are available to all staff and volunteers
 - b. raising awareness within SCSLSC
 - c. establishing and maintaining a complaints procedure
 - d. regularly reporting to the Club Chairperson on child or young person protection issues and

Health-Safety-Welfare Safeguarding Children Policy and Procedures

complaints

- e. acting as the main contact for child or young person protection matters
- f. keeping up-to-date with developments in child or young person protection legislation
- g. maintaining confidential records of reported cases and any action taken
- h. regularly monitoring and reviewing existing policies and procedures

6.5 It is the responsibility of staff and volunteers to be vigilant, have knowledge and awareness of the indicators of neglect, potential or actual abuse, and to report any concerns, suspicions or allegations of suspected abuse immediately and ensure that the concern is taken seriously and reported.

Allegations and Complaints

- 6.6 Any allegation or concern that a child or young person may have been harmed or abused must be taken seriously and dealt with sensitively and promptly.
- 6.7 Any allegation or concern that a staff member or volunteer may have behaved in a manner that has harmed or abused a child or young person must be taken seriously and dealt with sensitively and promptly.
- 6.8 In situations where a staff member or volunteer is alleged to have caused harm or abuse to a child or young person, and where an investigation is initiated, or likely to be initiated by the NZ Police and/or Oranga Tamariki, the staff member or volunteer will be temporarily suspended until an outcome has been achieved. Suspension is not punitive but a safety measure for both the staff member or volunteer and the child or young person.
- 6.9 In the case of an allegation where the NZ Police and/or Oranga Tamariki are not involved, the staff member or volunteer may be required to undertake alternative duties to avoid direct contact with children and young people until an outcome has been achieved.
- 6.10 Where desired and permitted, SCSLSC shall seek to support the child or young person and their family through any investigation processes if undertaken.
- 6.11 Where desired and permitted, SCSLSC shall seek to provide peer support to the staff member or volunteer through any investigation process if undertaken.

7.0 PROCEDURES

Recruitment and Training

- 7.1 The process of filling staff and/or volunteer positions requiring contact or interaction with children and young people should include:
- a. Having written role descriptions
 - b. following up on referees
 - c. interviewing preferred candidate/s
 - d. undertaking safety checks of the preferred candidate/s
- 7.2 In addition to the pre-selection safety checks, the child or young person protection process must include subsequent monitoring and training of staff and volunteers in order to:

Health-Safety-Welfare Safeguarding Children Policy and Procedures

- a. ensure that staff and volunteers are working safely and effectively with children and young people
- b. identify and respond to any unacceptable behaviour or practices
- c. enable staff and volunteers to analyse their own behaviour and practices against SCSLSC's Safeguarding Code of Conduct – Refer to Appendix A, so as to minimise the risk of allegations or complaints against that person
- d. respond in a positive way to concerns raised about any staff or volunteer behaviour, e.g. via training to improve practices

Allegations and Complaints – Refer to Appendix B

7.3 In all cases, a RESPOND → RECORD → CONSULT → REPORT/MONITOR approach should be implemented at all times.

Respond

- 7.4 If there is an immediate risk of harm to the child or young person, emergency medical treatment is needed, or a crime against a child or young person has been committed, staff or volunteers should call 111 and inform SCSLSC's Club Child Protection Officer. If an allegation is against SCSLSC's Club Child Protection Officer, inform SCSLSC's Chairperson.
- 7.5 If a child or young person makes a disclosure, react calmly and show that you are listening and concerned.
- 7.6 Take what the child or young person has said seriously and allow the child or young person to continue at their own pace, without interrupting.
- 7.7 Do not give assurances of confidentiality but explain that the information will need to be passed on to those that need to know. Tell the child or young person what will happen next and offer reassurance that the issue will be taken seriously.
- 7.8 Keep questions to an absolute minimum, only to establish and clarify what the child or young person is saying and not to investigate; this is the role of the NZ Police and/or Oranga Tamariki.
- 7.9 SCSLSC fully supports 'whistleblowing' for the protection of a child or young person. SCSLSC will support staff or volunteers who report any behaviour or practice that may contravene this policy and/or pose a possible risk to children or young people.

Record

- 7.10 When allegations or disclosures occur, make a comprehensive record of what was said and done. The record should include the following:
 - a. a verbatim record of the child or young person's account of what occurred, in their own words, which should not include the assumptions or opinions of others. This record could be used later in a criminal trial and needs to be as accurate as possible.
 - b. a description of any visible injury.
 - c. the date, time, and place of the alleged incident, of the conversation, and any other potentially useful information.
- 7.11 Transfer all notes to an Incident Report Form keeping all original notes attached to the form, as they may be needed as evidence. At the earliest opportunity, pass this form to SCSLSC's Club Child Protection Officer who will store it in a secure location. Forms should be retained for a period of 50 years.

Consult

- 7.12 Following an allegation or disclosure, SCSLSC's Club Child Protection Officer must be informed as soon as practicable, detailing what has happened and what (if any) actions have been taken in response to the incident.
- 7.13 Never work alone, nor investigate, nor question an alleged offender or contact the child or young person's family without prior approval from Oranga Tamariki and/or the NZ Police, and only in consultation with SCSLSC's Club Child Protection Officer.

Report/Monitor

- 7.14 Once an Incident Report Form has been submitted to the SCSLSC's Club Child Protection Officer, they will assess whether a Report of Concern should be made to Oranga Tamariki and/or the NZ Police. The SCSLSC's Club Child Protection Officer will seek guidance from SLSNZ's National Child Protection Officer, Oranga Tamariki and/or the NZ Police as to what further actions the club are permitted to take, if any. Where permitted, the Club Child Protection Officer will advise all parties of the process and progress, which may include one or more of the following:
 - a. informing parents, staff, volunteers and any organisation responsible for the child or young person
 - b. talking to the child or young person
 - c. contacting the alleged offender
 - d. contacting SLSNZ's National Child Protection Officer
- 7.15 SCSLSC will not enter into any settlement agreement where a child or young person's safety and/or protection is a concern, i.e. where a settlement agreement contradicts a culture of safeguarding and child protection.
- 7.16 In the instance a child, young person and/or the alleged party leaves SCSLSC, while a complaint is in progress or where a complaint arises after their departure, the Club Child Protection Officer in consultation with the Club Chairperson and relevant authorities shall determine what actions will be taken to uphold the intent of this policy.
